MATRIX FITNESS STRENGTHENS SALES FORCE Brian Rewkowski and Dan Bodendein Hired as Strategic Account Managers

COTTAGE GROVE, Wis. – – August 30, 2010 – Johnson Health Tech North America is pleased to announce two new additions to its Matrix Fitness sales force. Brian Rewkowski and Dan Bodendein join JHTNA as Strategic Account Managers for Matrix Fitness' JCC and YMCA east coast and west coast accounts, respectively.

Brian Rewkowski joins Matrix Fitness from Nautilus Commercial Fitness, where he served as national sales director and successfully transitioned the Nautilus-branded commercial portfolio to Med-Fit Systems. With a proven track record of award-winning sales leadership and multimillion-dollar sales growth, Brian brings a true entrepreneurial spirit and years of building solution selling strategies to the company.

Dan Bodendein comes to Matrix Fitness after 15 years at Star Trac by Unisen, Inc., where he most recently served as national account manager and restructured the company's relationship with Gold's Gym International, increasing international revenue and positioning Star Trac as a preferred vendor. In addition to wide-ranging industry expertise, Dan brings extensive sales and international experience to the Matrix team.

"Having Brian and Dan join our team is an enormous gain for the Matrix brand," said Kent Stevens, Executive Vice President- Matrix. "In addition to their experience in territory growth and development and key client retention, they are both truly dynamic and hard-working sales representatives and individuals. We are very excited to have Brian and Dan on board as we expand and build upon the Matrix portfolio."
